COURSE OUTLINE

PERIPHERAL NERVE MANIPULATION: UPPER BODY (NM2)

The Barral Institute

OUTLINE

- Dura mater manipulations: lateral, anterior and posterior parts
- Peripheral nerve manipulations: cervical plexus, median, ulnar, radial, axillary, dorsal scapular and suprascapular nerves
- Lumbar plexus manipulations: femoral, obturator and ischiatic nerves
- Skull content manipulations: intracranial pressure increase, compression, decompression and mobilization
- Intravertebral canal pressure increase and mobilization
- Post-trauma emotional release: trauma memories, odor, noise, silence and fear, visualization, the archaic emotional system
- Vestigial muscle manipulations: intrathoracic emotional storage
- Practice, review and a question and answer session